

For the Pisces Moon Sign born, this Sunday can bring your attention on your kids' health. A grown up kid can start behaving in rebellious manner forcing you to cut back on their finances.

For the students Monday can be very disturbing. Setbacks in education and poor grades in examinations can increase anxiety about studies.

The concerns about your kids' welfare can cause serious arguments with your spouse this Tuesday. But, a little more wisdom will settle them amicably. Wednesday must be dedicated to spending time with your spouse or your beloved. Also, you may act as a mediator between your juniors and seniors at work to help solve some human resource related issues.

Thursday is a day to be cautious about health. Avoid drinking alcohol on Thursday and Friday. Be in the company of your good friends and listen to their advices too. Friday is favorable for making efforts to earn more money. A future business partnership can also be planned on this day.

Weekend brings a short journey with your family. During this journey pay attention to your kids' safety. Drive safely and if possible hand over the steering to someone else.
