

A relative from a foreign land may call or pay you a visit on Sunday. This contact may also bring opportunities for some investments in overseas stocks or in some real estate. But, these may not materialize completely till the end of May 2010. Sunday is also a good day for performing a religious ceremony at your residence.

Your expressions of your thoughts will become more controlled and as a result your work will progress in a more systematic way than usual, on Monday and Tuesday. A family matter concerning a parental property may be solved but your relations with your family members will not be completely healed.

Wednesday may bring monetary and business gains for you. But, the efforts to earn more money may not give results as expected. The satisfaction from the outcome of efforts still remains low. Meetings with good friends of both sexes will make this day an otherwise enjoyable one, says Jyotish Biz.

A short journey for business reasons is possible on Thursday. The travel will be pleasant if you take care of what you eat and drink. A past saving or an investment will give good returns on Friday. But, do not lend money to anyone out of sympathy or you will regret this soft heartedness of yours in future.

An outing to a pleasure spot with family members is possible this weekend. Enjoy the good moments but take care of the health of the elders in your family at the same time.
