During this present jyotish transit of Mars in Kanya, it will also be in a potent samsaptaka yoga with Jupiter which is in transit in Pisces (Meen). This Mars-Saturn-Jupiter yoga will have very diverse and extreme results on all of us. According to Jyotish rules this yoga gives birth to an increase in accidents, terrorist activities, unrest and calamities. These negative results will intensify when Venus joins this combination of the three planets on 1st August 2010.

These planetary positions are much favored by the practitioners of occult as the spiritual energy is at a high due to the powerful effects of Mars-Saturn-Jupiter on the sub-conscious mind. Also, people suffering from auto-immune disorders like arthritis, cancer, asthma, etc can experience an increase in their sufferings. It is advisable for all to perform proper remedies and to strictly avoid wearing a combination of Red and Black colours in the garments.

In the industrial sector and business the IT companies will gain well and new products at affordable prices will be launched in the markets. The companies providing broadband and DTH services will also experience good jump due to these favorable planetary positions. But, these good results will be preceded by some corrective measures taken by the governments. The developing nations will see more increase in IT and Telecom industries as compared to the developed nations.

Setbacks are possible for the auto industry, aviation industry, railways and roadways. The losses can be due to labour unrest, accidents, loss on stock value and due to some natural causes. This transit of Mars is also not favorable for buying new vehicles.

For India and other nations which are facing internal unrest and terrorist activities the next one and half months can be very disturbing. The anti-social forces will gain strength and it will be only through clever propoganda and an innovative use of latest technology that these forces will be controlled and curbed. Also, labour unrest will increase and some of the big labour intensive industries will be forced to rethink about their labour policies.

The effect of this transit of Mars in Virgo in a yoga with Jupiter and Saturn will be as follows on the twelve Jyotish moon signs and ascendants:

1. Aries - Mesh: Health problems, job problems, change in job, litigation, health issues to parents, increase in debt.
