

Money gains importance over other issues this Sunday as your work suffers due to lack of funds. Some friends may get annoyed with you owing to your slippery behaviour in recent few months. Loans and debts raise their heads again. Time to be more cautious and a little more responsible, says Jyotish Biz.

Business offers from overseas will bring some joyous moments for you on Monday and Tuesday. Some past irregularities done in your work will begin to show their harmful results. You may also plan to shift both work and residence to another city. Father's health may suffer due to problems of liver and blood.

Your work energy will remain high on Wednesday and Thursday. Some targets will be achieved. Business partners too will show some happiness at the brightening future prospects of your business. For those who are in job sector these two days will be very beneficial if they are looking for new jobs.

Friday can be a day full of mixed experiences of frustrations in personal life along with sowing the seeds of a new romantic relationship. Your spouse or beloved could try to dictate terms even in your work. A member of opposite sex may get interested in you at your workplace.

Weekend will not be peaceful with a bad news about a member of your family coming to you. Your financial status and assets will determine the future of your business.
