

You may make travel plans for next month this Sunday. Your personal life may be affected by your irrational expenditures. Your loved ones may begin to point out your mistakes making things very uncomfortable for you. A good friend may get involved in a legal problem, says Jyotish Biz.

Your tendencies to dominate others in your relationships and friendships may backfire and may alienate you further from your near ones on Monday and Tuesday. The egoistic tug of war started on Monday will achieve maximum strain on Tuesday. It is time to reanalyze your behaviour with others.

A partner in business or a co-worker may start getting jittery about working with you on Wednesday. Some extra efforts and expenditure of time and money will be needed to make things better for the partnership. Do not make any false promises if you want any long term stability in your work.

Some problems at home may shift your focus from work to your residence on Thursday. The problems could be financial and involving some property matters. Your savings may be affected in the process of solving these problems. A friend may become unusually curious about your financial assets.

Your siblings may express their dissatisfaction about your ways of handling the family assets this Friday and Saturday. Avoid making things worse by your choice of irresponsible words.
