

You could get involved in a brawl or a similarly unpleasant situation due to irresponsible actions or words of a friend of opposite sex this Sunday. Stay away from such places where such situations can arise. A gain of money from unexpected sources may happen on this day, says Jyotish Biz.

Real estate worries may begin to trouble you again this Monday and Tuesday. A mortgage, an unpaid rent or a big amount of money blocked in a property investment may become more of a headache now. It is advisable to sell the property at existing prices than to keep on holding them under false hopes of a future gain.

Family matters may create indirect obstructions in your work on Wednesday. A travel may take you out of town for a day or two. This could also be an overseas journey. Thursday is good for performing a religious ceremony at a holy place. You may meet some really interesting and intelligent people who may affect a big change in your life.

Things are slowly becoming better for you financially and some good amount of monetary gain can take place this Friday. Your Kids' health may pose worries for you. You may make efforts to improve relations with your family members. But, some ties may still stay quite loose.

You must stay very cautious regarding financial dealings and your health this weekend. Avoid invitations to party, lunches or dinner at others homes. Better to eat your food at your home only.
