

There could be a disagreement of sorts between you and your siblings over a family real estate this Sunday. A good day for making repairs or changes in your residence. Your personal vehicle too could get a makeover done on it this Sunday.

A neighbour proposes a joint project to uplift the condition of your neighbourhood on Monday. Your kids' friends may start giving you anxious thoughts about the future of your children. Students will have some good achievements regarding their studies on Monday.

Concerns about your children may bring you and your spouse at loggerheads on Tuesday. Do not pull the fragile strings too much lest they may break. A friend's married life may need your interference to make things better, says Jyotish Biz.

Wednesday and Thursday may create situations for urgent expenditure of money. At the same time some gifts or other expensive items may be purchased by you for your loved one. A younger sibling may require medical attention due to unhealthy lifestyle.

Be careful about your health on Friday. A useless and avoidable long distance travel may harm your health and bring losses of energy and money. Your attempts to secure a good hold on your clients or customers will give good results on this day although at a cost of less margin of profits.

Weekend can be stressful and tedious. Avoid all kinds of meaningless arguments and useless thoughts. A romantic fling with a person of disrepute may take place.