

This Sunday could be a day to enjoy with your children. Their long standing demands may be met. You will also feel satisfied after spending some money to see your children happy. But, do not over indulge or you and your children may fall ill together. Any health problems coming up will be over by Monday morning.

You will be better able to handle your employees or subordinates and to solve their complaints on Monday. This is also a good day for making creative changes in your own business profile. But, Tuesday may see some dissatisfied employees making their complaints more vocal. You could be required to give some perks and advances to pacify them.

Wednesday will be an enjoyable day with close family members and friends. Good food and lots of entertainment will make it a memorable day. Your singing talent may be revealed creating mirth and happiness in everyone's heart, says Jyotish Biz. Those who are trying to sell a real estate may be able to do so on this day.

Your seniors at work may start picking on you on Thursday. The reasons could be your own lack of dedication towards your work. You are already thinking of changing jobs and this Thursday and Friday you may get a good opportunity to do so. But, the stress of these two days and the lack of enthusiasm in life could take a heavy toll on your physical well being.

One of your children may achieve a good educational or financial success this weekend. This achievement will be a matter of pride for you. A short celebration may also follow.
