

Sagittarius - Dhanu (11th Apr to 17th Apr 2010)

Written by Ashutosh

There may arise a dispute with a neighbour which may begin with a small disagreement but may blow up into a big ego tussle on Sunday. Things can be quite violent and there are chances of you getting injured. Be careful. Also, you may be making plans of changing your place of residence.

Rash driving can cause damages to your vehicle on Monday and Tuesdays. Health precautions are advised for those who are having cardiac troubles recently. Those who can donate blood must do so this Tuesday as a remedy for pacifying the negative and harmful forces of the debilitated Mars, says Jyotish Biz.

Wednesday brings change in job and also in the business setup. The lack of satisfaction from your work since last few months may be the reason for applying for new jobs. In business, a small alteration in the business strategy will start the flow of income quite smoothly. A creative work by you will prove your worth among your friends and acquaintances.

You may go on a short term but long distance trip to attend a family function or for some other personal reason on Thursday. This trip may continue till Friday evening. Friday is favorable for investing in stocks and government bonds. Investments done in the past may also start showing good profits.

Your boss may go on a foreign trip this weekend and this could be indirectly beneficial for you too. Health problems related to eyes, stomach and blood may give you trouble this weekend.