

Sudden and good opportunities for business may arrive on Sunday. Make the best use of them as these could be the basis of the major growth in business in coming months. You may get some good reports about the performance of your children in their studies or some similar positive news about them.

Work may suffer a bit due to lack of funds on Monday. You may be required to give credit or take a loan to keep your business going on smoothly. On Tuesday, your business partners may express their lack of confidence in the promises of profit from present business. A change of business strategy may be done to improve the profits.

You may try to please your spouse or beloved by giving expensive gifts this Wednesday. Still, some complaints will remain unsolved despite your best of efforts. This is a time when your dear ones will dominate you and you will try to meet their demands with lots of devotion, says Jyotish Biz.

Your employees in your business will make you proud due to their good work this Thursday and Friday. A child of yours may go away from you for educational purposes. Your dependency on your business partners may increase on Friday proving their importance for the success of your enterprise.

Weekend may be initially stressful due to a but small health problem to you. But, afterward, fun will lighten the atmosphere and you will enjoy the moment of leisure with your near and dear ones.