

A religious ceremony may be held at your home this Sunday. Or, you could be making plans for a pilgrimage to be undertaken in next two months. Your spouse could suffer from a bout of low sugar and general weakness. But, immediate care and a bit of love will make things normal.

You could be spending some efforts and money on improving your looks on Monday. But, be careful while experimenting with anything new or you could end up harming your health instead of looking better. Tuesday is not good for your mother's health. Your own stress levels will remain high on this day.

A friend may get into trouble on Wednesday and some financial help may be provided by you. At the same time business gains from abroad may happen. Deals with big business houses may go through. In job too, Leo rashi born people will gain benefits from improvements in their performances.

Your work takes you away on long distance travels to some interesting but a little uncomfortable places on Thursday and Friday. There are chances of meeting romantically inclined members of opposite sex whose interest in you may come as a surprise to you, on Friday, says Jyotish Biz.

You boss may need your company and cooperation to solve an out of the office matter this Weekend. Your generosity may get you in trouble with the law. Think twice before lending a helping hand to anyone.