

Difficulties hindering the smooth functioning of business may arise this Sunday. Your father's health may need more attention on this day. A younger sibling may provide useful help to alleviate the troubles in your business. Things will get smoother by Monday morning but at an expense some amount of money.

Monday and Tuesday will be financially favorable. Good gains of money from unexpected sources will take place. Relations between your siblings will get better by some wise interventions by your mother. A sale of property may go through on Monday but the money may not come into your hands till Friday, says Jyotish Biz.

Wednesday could be devastating for your saved wealth. Do not make any big purchases on this day. Take care of your health. Watch out for problems related to lungs, nerves and head. A child of yours may also require medical aid on Wednesday.

Again, one of your kids may be taken ill on Thursday and Friday. Money may go out of hand to sort out a problem in the neighbourhood. A plan for a foreign travel in near future may be made. Uncontrolled shopping for clothes and other luxury goods may increase your financial worries.

This weekend you will be more in control of your expenses and your relations with your near ones. Things will calm down and some sanity returns after the hectic and confusing development of events in this week.
