

Leo - Simha - Moon Sign - 2010 - Forecast.□

In 2009 Leo or Simha Moon Sign born people underwent great and unpredictable turmoils and strains. In 2010, most of the adversities of 2009 will be over and happiness with overall life satisfaction will be there for Leo people.

The new year begins with good promises of advancement in career and freedom from troubles of past one year. 2010 will give Leo Rashi people good gains in their professions and happiness in matters of love and marriage.

Health: For Leo Rashi people 2010 will bring good health gains. Those who have been ill in 2009 will recover quite fast in 2010. But, the first half of this year still requires precautions for those who have cardiac and hypertension related health problems. The second half alleviates most of the remaining health problems.

Obesity can pose a problem in 2010. Check what you eat and exercise well to control your weight. Yoga, meditations and aerobics need to be incorporated in your daily routine.

Job: In job areas the Leo (Simha) Moon sign born people have faced some serious issues and difficulties in last one and half years. The search for a new and better paying job was becoming unending. But, now, as 2010 sets in it brings more stability and growth in job than ever before.

The first four months of 2010 will bring increases in salary, bonus, incentives and much appreciation of your good performance from your superiors. Even your seniors and boss will receive benefits of your hard work and timely wise advices. They will gain promotions and other benefits due to your hard work and in turn they will be very eager to give you the best rewards they have in their kitty.

Rivalries and competition will lessen and you will be much comfortable in your work place.

New job offers and openings will come your way in May-June 2010. Make best use of them.

Business: Those Leo (Simha) Moon Sign people who are in manufacturing business will do well in 2010. Even those who have traditionally been only traders will be tempted to set up some manufacturing or assembling/packages units.

For Business gains the best results will come in months of April, September and November 2010.

Any legal issues which were hampering business growth will be solved in first half of 2010 without any extra efforts.

Business partnerships will flourish and family members too will contribute to your enterprise. 2010 is the year for new collaborations and for executing the plans for business expansion.

Wealth: Good gains of money and fixed assets in 2010. Investments will give profitable returns. But, it is still advised to not to be in a hurry to encash the investments. Postpone any such plans to 2011 second half.

Not much will be accumulated in bank account in 2010. But, stocks and bonds will be bought as a way of long term investments.

Education: Those Leo Rashi born students who are appearing for exams in first four months of 2010 will do well beyond their expectations. But, the second half of this year can give educations related losses due to overconfidence owing to the good performance in the first half.

So, it is advised that the hard work and studious spirit of 2010 first half should be kept persistently in second half too.

Real Estate: Simha Moon Sign people are advised to not to make any investments in real estate before June 2010. The best time to buy property is in June and November 2010.

Vehicle: Be careful while driving in first five months of 2010. Ensure that your vehicle is in good order and the insurance and other formalities are done in time. Damages to vehicle and some legal issues related to your vehicle may come up.

Leo Moon Sign born will be tempted to buy a new more comfortable vehicle in November 2010 which is also quite a favorable time to do so.

Love: Leo (Simha) Moon Sign born people are advised to refrain from throwing around their ball of love in 2010. New romantic partners will be found. May, July and October 2010 brings good favorable coincidences for love affairs. But, if you have found love already then be devoted to your beloved however hard you may be tempted to stray in 2010.

In 2010, love will be found through friends and siblings. Keep your heart and eyes open when attending any family function or a party with your good friends.

Marriage: 2010 is a favorable year for getting married for Simha Rashi people. Jupiter, the benevolent and pious planet, oversees that you find a good and noble partner in 2010. The first quarter of 2010 itself is quite favorable for getting married.

The last quarter of 2010 even better than the first quarter but the expenses on marriage and honeymoon may go beyond the budget at that time. Heart will rule over the pocket.

Family: For Leo (Simha) Moon Sign born people health of mother will be a concern from January 2010 to June 2010. Unexpected and sudden expenses on her treatment may arise. Be prepared and get health insurance done in time.

Your father will gain much respect and riches in the last four months of 2010. You will be spending some good amount for increasing the comforts in your parents' household this year.

Surprise help and support will come from siblings and cousins in April-May 2010.

Those Leo born who have plans to have children in near future should plan for a conception between January to April 2010.

Travels: Leo Rashi born have already packed their bags and are ready to travel. The journeys in 2010 will be more for pleasure and less for work. The first four months bring travels to places of religious and cultural importance.

The last three months will see Leo people traveling just for the sake of travel. This year 2010 will take them to distant but beautiful lands.

Remedies: Avoid wearing Red in first five months of 2010. You can wear it freely later. Also, throughout the year wear less of Green and Black. Wear more of Golden, Yellow, Orange and Brown.

Donate jaggery, mustard oil and green garments. These donations can be done on Wednesdays and on Saturdays.

Keep fasts on Wednesdays in 2010. Eat one full meal and take fruits or milk at other meal times.

Wear a Ruby in Gold ring on ring finger. Also, wear a Yellow Sapphire in gold ring on index finger.

Jyotish Biz Moon Sign Forecasts 2010